

CheckQuery

ProvidentCheckwriter is now more powerful than ever, with another outstanding option for Enterprise SQL users.

One of the main features of ProvidentCheckwriter is its strong audit control; another is fraud prevention. The CheckQuery add-on option provides an extra measure of both, while helping improve productivity by saving time!

With CheckQuery, tellers, call center and customer service reps, operations center and branch personnel can quickly and easily submit an inquiry to the SQL database to determine if a presented official check has been legitimately issued, and if so,

The screenshot shows the 'CheckQuery' application window. It has a title bar with the application name and standard window controls. The main area contains several input fields: 'Check Number', 'Check Amount', and 'Date' are grouped together at the top. Below them are 'Remitter' and 'Pay to' fields. At the bottom right, there are two buttons labeled 'Inquire' and 'Exit'.

its status. With just a few keystrokes, you can find out if that check is simply pending clearance, or whether it's been flagged as stolen, forged, voided, or is in escheat status. Green indicates the check is legitimate and waiting to be cleared; red indicates a problem, which is displayed; and the gray ALERT screen indicates the check number entered is not in the database:

The image displays three overlapping screenshots of the 'CheckQuery' application. The top-left window shows a green background, indicating a successful query. The 'Check Number' field contains '336480501', and the 'Remitter' field contains 'JILL BAILEY'. The middle window, titled 'LCW Check Inquiry', has a red background and displays 'VOIDED' in large letters, with the message 'CHECK STOLEN FROM SPERRY INC.' below it. The 'Check Number' field in this window contains '336480502', and the 'Remitter' field contains 'ACME BROTHERS'. The bottom-right window shows a gray background with an 'ALERT' message: ' ALERT  Check number 336580511 does not appear in the database. Please verify the check number has been entered correctly. This check number has NOT been issued using the Check Writer System. Please contact your supervisor.' The 'Check Number' field in this window contains '336580511'.
